15 August 2015
Feast Day of the Assumption of Mary

Greetings Dear Brothers and Sisters in CLC!

Consistent with our priority frontier of Ecology, as mandated at our last General Assembly in Lebanon, the World ExCo invites all our members to observe the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation on September 1st. This is a wonderful moment to be in solidarity with Pope Francis and our world community, and especially the many of you already actively engaged in ecological issues.

We also invite you to observe the Season of Creation beginning September 1st through October 4th, also in solidarity with many Christians and Inter-faith groups around the world. CLC has joined a network of Catholic organizations called the Global Catholic Climate Movement (GCCM), whose resources and initiatives align with our priority of ecology. You can find concrete ways to observe this Season of Creation on their website. We encourage you to share your communities' prayer experiences and ecological initiatives with us! You may also do this by posting on our Facebook Page CVX-CLC in your own language!

This is an important time in our world history where so many people of faith and ecological awareness are speaking up on behalf of the care of our most vulnerable people and for the care of creation. With our Ignatian tradition of prayer and discernment, CLC has a special role in reflecting on how the Spirit is calling us—whether personally and/or as a community—to respond.

In Christ,
